

The Six Questions Sent to the Candidates

- What is your position on increasing the minimum wage to $15 an hour?
- How can the government address the problems faced by so many citizens who are struggling with college debt and healthcare costs?
- What steps would you take to stop gun violence?
- What action can the government take in addressing drug addiction?
- What do you think is a fair policy toward immigrants and refugees?
- What is your commitment to funding adult education for all the adult learners who need it?